MEMBERS GATHER FOR ANNUAL PICNIC

Trust members came together on Sunday, August 6th for the annual old-fashioned summertime picnic. This year's event took place at Camp Massasoit on the campus of Springfield College, where members enjoyed touring the 1932 "Pueblo-1/4". According to Ted France, director of the campsite, the Pueblo is "the only building of its style or type east of the Mississippi." After exploring this and the camp's extensive grounds, picnic-goers feasted on an authentic New England Clambake of steamers, barbecue and strawberry shortcake.

Members also had their knowledge of local history tested when they played a local version of Trivial Pursuit. Many thanks to the picnic committee (Ron Rouillard, Kathy Post and Diane Fisher) for organizing this event.
